

THE CITY.

Wear attention to the decision of Judge Cooper on the constitutionality of the Franchise law.

The debris of the late fire at the corner of Cherry and Broad streets is being cleaned up, and preparations are making for the erection of new buildings.

The landing yesterday presented quite an attractive scene with the fleet of lately arrived boats. Business we are sorry to say was rather dull.

The Rev. James Moore, Rector of the Episcopal Church of the Advent, arrived yesterday, and will officiate Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and 7 p. m.

SALE OF A BLOOD HORSE.—Mr. Jeff French, the well known cotton broker, sold yesterday to Capt. Hamner, for fifteen hundred dollars, the celebrated pacer "Bell of Nashville."

We have now the largest and most complete job office in the city, and are prepared to do every description of printing in a style that cannot be surpassed. Parties having such work to do are invited to give us a trial.

PRISTINE street, Capitol Hill, between College and Market streets, is being repaired and macadamized. A number of similar improvements are in progress in this locality, which will add greatly to the appearance of this part of town.

SOCIAL REUNION.—A most agreeable festive party assembled at the residence of Major Brown last evening. The members of the City Council were present, and a number of citizens. The hospitality of the Mayor was profuse and liberal as usual.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—There will be divine service at the First Baptist Church to-morrow, at the usual hours. Sabbath school at 9 a. m. Temporary arrangements have been made for the comfort of the congregation while the church is undergoing repairs.

THE LOUISVILLE RAILROAD ROBBERIES.—Search about the locality where the marauders were captured, resulted in the recovery of considerable of the property stolen from the train at the time of the outrage. Capt. S. B. Brown, of our city, and a number of individuals have gone to Louisville to identify the parties.

THE CONCORDIA—HARRY EVERETT'S BENEFIT.—A large and select audience was present last night at Concordia Hall, on the occasion of Harry Everett's benefit. The band of the 10th Regulars was in attendance, and filled, in grand style, the place of a regular orchestra. Harry was in his happy mood, and the entertainment, in all respects, passed off in the pleasantest manner.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.—Henry Bruner was arraigned before Requirer Wilkinson, Patterson and Sloan, yesterday, on complaint of Messrs. Bay & Hamner, charged with obtaining a note for $4,000 under false pretenses. The examination was held in the Recorder's Court room. Quite a number of witnesses were examined, when the case was adjourned until 10 o'clock, p. m., today.

REV. JAMES MOORE.—This gentleman, who was recently called to the Rectory of the Church of the Advent, arrived in our city Thursday, and will preach his first regular sermon to that congregation Sunday morning. Mr. Moore is a Marylander, we believe, and brings a reputation for Ministerial efficiency and Christian excellence of character, which will not fail to be of material help to him in the new field of labor. We commend him to the veneration and congregation of the Church of the Advent upon the choice of so estimable a man to be their Pastor.

WORTHY OF COMMEMORATION.—Quite a number of emigrants, bound for the Southwest, have passed through the city of late, as almost every one is aware. Yesterday we saw a family on their way to a new country, whose troubles were certainly of a grievous character. They had set out with a span of horses and wagon, but not long after one of the horses died, and they were compelled to sell the other, and likewise dispose of the wagon. The money thus obtained would have taken them to the new country, but they were robbed, however, when near Nashville, and left without a cent. We are happy to state that some benevolent individuals interested themselves in behalf of the sufferers, and sent them up on their way rejoicing.

THE RACES.—There will be two races this afternoon over the Nashville Race Course, and some rare sport is anticipated.

First race sweepstakes for trotters. Entrance, $100 each, best three in five, to harness. The following are the entries: (Geo. Putcher enters b. g. Kentucky, Capt. Widener enters b. g. Honest John.

Second race, match for $2,000. Mile heats to harness, to be driven by the celebrated light weights, Henry Bruner and Theo. Hamner. The following are the entries: Henry Bruner enters s. g. Redback, putcher enters s. g. Cadmus, trotter.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following is list of marriage licenses (white) issued for the week ending Friday, November 23, 1866.

J. P. Tucker to Jennie A. Hughes, Chas. Smith to Amanda Johnson, Wm. Townsend to Melvina Beard, Theodore L. Mason to Lucy A. Floyd, John Hale to Anna Shaw, Martin Nicholson to Julia Lerner, John Hussy to Honora Bollen, Joseph Long to Mary McClinton, Jesse N. Rutz to Albertine Savage, Jacob Miller to Fanny F. Jackson, Theo. Canning to Annie Harlan, John H. Wood to Rosa McWilliams, John Kinney to Kate Dougherty.

THE SINGER AND SUPPER.—We dropped in a few minutes last evening at Masonic Hall to get a glimpse of the arrangements in connection with the supper and supper given by the Tennessee Benevolent Association. Everything was prepared in magnificent style. The tables fairly groaned beneath the load of good things, most temptingly displayed. From the stage a fine band discoursed delightful music, while the gas light shone down upon a brilliant throng. The fair of Nashville's daughters, and a number of her sons were out in full force, and we have certainly seldom seen a more vivacious crowd. Every one seemed to be enjoying himself. We are certain to retain those ladies kind hearted and generous creatures, who carried on the work of soliciting money were in their element, and are quite confident that the receipts will be worthy of the object for which they are designed. This afternoon at three o'clock, the supper will be continued. Tickets of admission one dollar.

YESTERDAY was a particularly quiet day. Not more than a couple arrests were made from early in the morning until late at night. Hardly a solitary bumper was to be seen from daylight to dark. In short, everything was peaceful, quiet and serene. We did witness one amusing incident, however, in the course of the afternoon. Passing a rather retired alley running from Broad street, we saw a male attached to a dilapidated express wagon loaded with stove wood. The hind wheel of the vehicle had plunged into a rut, and the male had fallen. There was a tremendous amount of hallooing from the unique looking specimen of the negro race who filled the place of driver. New by, summing themselves along a shattered wall, sat a row of colored individuals who were enjoying the perplexity of the owner of the persistent mule. Their loud laughter and ha ha might have been heard a couple of squares at least, and would have been sufficient to conquer even the patience of old Job himself had he been there. Drooping the lines, the driver of the refractory mule made a rush at the row of fellows displayed against the wall. There followed a series of gymnastic feats resembling the school-boy game of leap-frog. Exaggerated feet twinkled in the air, and numerous acrobatic feats followed, as the exasperated negro lashed about him with a will. It was as good as a first class circus. The performance might have continued for an indefinite length of time but for the sudden appearance around the corner of a couple of stray policemen. What occurred we did not stay to see.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Miss JULIA HAMILTON was honored with the first call on the docket. It appears that a woman named NELLIE JOHNSON behaved in a very disorderly manner at a ball held at the Fairfield Palace, on the Lebanon Pike. A policeman was called in, and while endeavoring to quiet NELLIE, JULIA HAMILTON interfered and threatened to knife him if he attempted to make any arrests. Her demonstrations were extremely pugilistic, and the officer released Miss JOHNSON and took JULIA into custody. She was represented at the Court by a responsible party, and fined $20.

WATT PAYNE, on Thursday, engaged in the pleasant pastime of giving his old woman a thrashing. He then turned on a young man named WATT GRAY, who presented his advances by knocking him down with a bill of wood. Both parties were arrested and fined $5 apiece.

CALIFORNIA ROBBERS, MARIA WHITE and MADISON WHITE, colored, were up for disorderly conduct. The case was of such a trivial nature the parties were discharged without cost.

JOHN COLEMAN, colored, was fined $14 for striking a little white boy, son of John D. JAMES, Esq. Wm. CALHOUN, colored, arrested for being drunk and abusing his wife, was mulcted in the sum of $5.

A young man was fined $14 for engaging in a row on Deaderick street.

H. J. IYIN, a colored soldier, who stated he was recruiting in Shelbyville to go to Mexico, was picked up in Smoky Row by the police, where he was flourishing a huge pistol, and endangering the lives of the denizens in that locality. Judge Foster required him to deposit $14 of his bounty to the credit of the corporation.

A Slaughterer for disorderly conduct, had his case continued until Monday.

Charles KRETSCHMAN, a white man, was arrested for lewdness with a black wench named Anna Davis. The evidence was conclusive that they had been living together as man and wife for the past six months. The white man was fined $20; the girl was let off for $5.

J. W. Carpenter, proprietor of the Nashville Sprinkling Cart, was charged on three warrants with drawing water from the service pipe to sprinkle the streets after the hour specified by law. It was ascertained that Carpenter was ignorant of having violated the law, and the cases were dismissed at his cost.

H. Wagner, the prosecuting witness in the case of lewdness against Kretschan, was arrested on complaint of that gentleman for disorderly conduct, and fined $5.

Two young men, who request their names suppressed, were fined $5 apiece for disorderly conduct.

Eliza Moore and Major Baker, colored, for creating a disturbance, paid $3 apiece.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.—The following are the transfers of real estate for the week ending Friday, November 23, 1866.

M. B. Howell, Clerk and Master, to J. Bell Reddick, deed of lot in Harlan's addition, $1,000. B. F. Foster to Robert Foster, deed of lots in South Nashville, $1,100.

M. B. Howell, Clerk and Master, to William N. Patterson, deed of thirteen acres of land in Davidson county.

P. N. Compton and wife to Holt, deed of 30 acres land in Arkansas, $1,000. A. J. Caldwell to William Younger, deed of land in Gibson county, $2,500.

Wm. W. Austin, deed of lot in city, $2,000. M. G. L. Claiborne to David Hughes, deed of three lots in Mary and Claiborne's addition, $1,250. J. George E. Cook and George N. Smith, by law, B. Johnson, attorney in fact, to Henry D. Hill, deed of fifteen acres of land in district No. five, $1,200.

W. B. Berry and others to Nashville Protestant Orphan Asylum, deed of Boesebel lots in Davidson county, $20,000. James C. Owen, by J. H. Callender, attorney in fact, to George Allen, deed of lot in Davidson county, $120.

Thomas and L. B. Fite to W. and J. Walworth, deed of interest in land in B200. Church Raspberry to J. R. Raspberry, deed of land in Davidson county, $100.

V. K. Stevenson to H. S. Peach, deed of lot in Ewing's addition, $200. James H. Lightfoot to Chadbourne & Miller, deed of land in Texas.

James H. Lightfoot to Chadbourne & Miller, deed of land in Texas. W. P. Bang to B. V. Vannoy and others, deed of undivided interest in lot in city, $1,000.

A GENERAL INTEREST.—The policy of insurance against loss, as it becomes more generally understood, increases in favor of the public, and is getting to be the rule and not the exception. Experience has demonstrated that associated capital can take risks that individuals cannot. It is no longer necessary to make arguments to demonstrate the practicability of business of this character, as generally conducted, but the extension of risks to fire stock is comparatively a new feature to which the attention of the public has not been sufficiently directed.

We have heretofore called attention to the TENNESSEE LIFE STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY, organized by and under the control of some of the most substantial and reliable citizens of Tennessee. Our present purpose is simply to ask what argument can be made in favor of any character of insurance that will not apply with equal force to this. The danger of loss is not less while the cost of insurance is not greater. If we can afford, by this system, to guard against loss in the one instance, why not in the other? By associated efforts hazards of every kind can be materially lessened. This is the main ground upon which the principle of insurance is based.

A policy of the Life Stock Company insures against theft as well as disease. The disordered state of the country has greatly increased the risk of this character. No owner of valuable stock, who with due attention to the subject, can fail to see that it is in his interest to avail himself of this new feature in the insurance business.

The company organized in this State is under the control of gentlemen of such standing as to warrant full confidence in its management. We are prompted to call attention to this subject from a desire to advance an important public interest. We trust that our suggestions will be duly considered.

NOT QUITE MARRIED.—A very respectable appearing white man, by the name of John H. Wood, called on Esquire P. W. Brien, Thursday night, with the request that he would perform the ceremony between him and Miss Rosa McWilliams, a young lady whom he represented as "a first rate gal, but she isn't white." The Esquire informed the ardent youth that if he desired a union with the aforesaid "gal" and gal, he must migrate to a State that tolerated intermarriage—that he was amenable to the laws of Tennessee if he attempted it here. On examination of the license issued by the County Court Clerk, it was seen that it was regularly issued. Of course the Clerk was ignorant of the fact of the lady being a negro. We presume Mr. Wood will encounter serious difficulties if he endeavors to consummate the marriage in this State.

R. H. SINGLETON has received Wilks' Spirit of the Times, Chipper, Field, Turf and Farm, Ledger, Chimney Corner, Albion, Banner of Art, Artisan, Irish American, People, Pilot, Metropolitan Record, Knoxville Whig, Independent, Bon Ton, Catholic World, and Scott's Monthly Magazine for December, also Farmers' and Gardeners' Pictorial, and all the latest leading dailies.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING.—It will be seen from an advertisement elsewhere that Charles Robertson, the well-known baker and confectioner, 15 Market street, has, in addition to his regular stock, received a large number of fancy articles suitable for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Robertson is one of our old, reliable merchants, and those who are looking around for presents for the "little ones" should give him a call.

PAINTING.—Our neighbors Messrs. Hutchison & Fleming, as will be seen from advertisement, are prepared to do house and sign painting of every description. They are reliable, worthy gentlemen, and Mr. Fleming has been long and favorably known to our citizens for the superiority of his workmanship.

FARMERS' Agricultural Enterprise.

EGYPTIAN CORN,
Endorsed by the Press and the People—Pro Bono Publico.

IT IS AN ENTIRELY NEW BREADSTUFF, unlike any other ever introduced in America, possessing the following merits: It will ripen as far North as Boston, planted even the 1st of August; hence other varieties will not mix with it. It is estimated, from its very prolific qualities, to yield 150 bushels per acre on rich lands; the yield, however, is flattering on any variety of soil. It weighs by sealed measure, 65 1/2 pounds to the bushel. It grows in the form of a tree, and thirty-four spikes have grown upon one stalk on this soil. For domestic use it is unparalleled. When ground and bolted, it is equal in color and sowing to wheaten flour. As a forage crop, by sowing in drills or broadcast, for early feed, there is no kind of corn so well adapted to milch cows, and none that will yield half the value in fodder or corn. It contains 95 per cent. solid nutriment matter—No. 1. It needs no different culture from that of other varieties, and in the South two crops can be grown in one season on the same ground. It can be successfully grown in any State from Maine to Texas.

Those in order that all may receive seed, we have reduced the price to one dollar and fifty cents a package. Any person who will get up a list of five will receive a package gratis; 15 packages for $10.50 packages for $20.10 packages for $30. We will also send a package gratis to wounded soldiers and widow ladies who will remit us fifty cents to pay postage. One package will contain enough corn to produce enough to plant the following season, from twenty to thirty acres; also, directions for planting and cultivating. Address: RAY'S NEST P.
